

Applications Now Being Accepted

Recruitment & Retention Specialist

Botetourt County is seeking highly motivated candidates for a newly created Recruitment & Retention Specialist in the Department of Fire & EMS.

The successful candidate for this position will be responsible for maximizing the recruitment and retention efforts of the department through marketing, outreach, and relationship building within the fire and EMS community.

For a list of job requirements, visit www.botetourtva.gov

Salary Range: $32,210 to $48,315 DOQ

Applications are being accepted until the position is filled. Initial application review will be conducted on applications received by close of business on March 27, 2020.

Benefits:

Virginia Retirement System, health, dental, vision and life insurance, and educational reimbursement opportunities.

Botetourt County is an Equal Opportunity Employer