Blue Ridge Public Library

Who are the Friends?

The Friends of the Blue Ridge Library is a non-profit, volunteer organization bringing together citizens who actively support the library through volunteering, advocacy and fundraising.

It was formed with the opening of the library in 1988.

What do they do?

The Friends raise funds for library services and programs through proceeds from membership dues, patron donations, and sales of gently used books at their May and October book sales. Library services funded by the Friends include:

- Sponsoring reading programs for children, teens, and adults
- Purchasing books, audio/visual materials, and other extras not in the library budget.
- Sponsoring visiting speakers, authors, and special events.
- Offering a coffee corner and more!
